

4th Grade Newsletter

Religion:

- We are beginning a chapter in our Religion texts titled “Strengthened by the Eucharist.” As fourth graders study the Liturgy of the Eucharist, consecration and Eucharistic prayer, we will also begin to memorize some of the new and old responses at Mass.

Math:

- Students continue to work on place value, estimating, rounding, etc.

Social Studies:

- The students took our test over the SE states, capitals, and abbreviations today.
- Their test over Chapter 6 (“The Southeast”) will be next Friday.

Science:

- The animal project is due next Monday, January 23rd.
 - Your student is required to submit a summary or a paragraph answering all seven questions in addition to the presentation. If you have any questions about this project, please feel free to email Cally Dahlstrom at cdahlstrom@stpeterskc.org

Language Arts:

- We continue to focus on comprehension strategies in our class novel to help your child comprehend his/her own reading.
- In English students are focusing on pronouns.
- Your child has been learning new vocabulary and using these fabulous words in his/her everyday writing.

Reminders:

- Friday, January 20 – Jeans Day and Snowflake Dance (also, last day to send in money for recorders)
